Concept

The Heritage Park is the historical and public-space spine; three key districts are innovation anchors, forming 'one belt, three cores, multiple scenario nodes, blue-green slow ring.' AI returns daily life, streets, and belonging to ordinary people.

Cultural Narrative

Self-Reliance · Homecoming: from Zhan Tianyou's one rail line to today's one algorithm. The railway once cut the city; today AI returns people home.

On a provisional boundary, areas/ratios are intake-level and must be recalculated with official polygons; no official approval or guaranteed implementation claimed.
