

01 / CIVIC QUALIFICATION

A PUBLIC QUALIFICATION LINE

The city is not a laboratory: each AI service must learn, be tested, serve for a limited term, and face human renewal or exit.

02 / SPATIAL OPERATING SYSTEM

SPACE AS A CHAIN OF RESPONSIBILITY

Four spatial roles support training, public explanation, service conversion and community care, with a central public status spine.

All ratios require official polygons and planning controls

Partition covers the submitted boundary for topology; it is not an approved land-use change.

THESIS

Let intelligence learn responsibility before it serves.

PUBLIC RIGHTS

No passive opt-in · no service penalty · multi-channel appeal

STOP

Safety officer stops; independent reviewer restarts

HUMAN CAPACITY

Human capacity and takeover time verified before opening

LIMIT

All spatial relations are conceptual pending official controls

03 / THREE DIFFERENT JOBS

THREE AREAS, THREE DISTINCT JOBS

The three key areas share one qualification protocol but perform distinct urban roles. All boundaries remain provisional.

Qualified services • devices • human desk • urban experience

Announced approximate areas guide the task; polygons do not establish redlines, ownership or precision.

04 / EVERY SERVICE HAS A WAY BACK

MOBILITY, GREEN AND HUMAN HANDOVER

The spine links four public interfaces; a low-sensing alternative preserves movement and human help without personalised service.

Mobility and green-space relations are conceptual pending redline, ecological and engineering review.
