

EVIDENCE FIRST

A spine for history, a right to quiet

Provisional geometry stays in the background; the design story is carried by a spine, fields, nodes and explicit stop gates.

Rough boundary · not a statutory redline

● One spine / three fields

● Five concept ribbons

SPATIAL OPERATING SYSTEM

Five ribbons turn acoustic quality into urban form

A topology-safe conceptual partition—not current land use and not a regulatory plan.

JZ / 01

THREE FIELDS, NOT THREE COPIES

Each key area gets a different acoustic and operational role

because the canonical provisional polygon is not station-anchored.

JZ / 01

● Three key-area contracts

WALK / REST / TEST

Blue-green buffers and multimodal paths make the spine usable

Sound + text + light + tactile cues; staffed fallback remains available.

FOUR NON-NEGOTIABLES

01

No audio-only safety message

02

No phone-only public service

03

No robot without human stop

04

No station geometry before anchor

● 12 reversible nodes

● 0 h default raw retention

● Human stop and fallback

MEASURE WHAT EXISTS; LABEL WHAT DOES NOT

The first deliverable is a baseline—not a performance claim

Values are recalculable. Field baselines and statutory controls remain unknown.
