

Centennial Loop · AI Origin: Jing-Zhang Origin (A3 booklet)

Concept: Centennial Loop · AI Origin — 1909 railway × 2019 smart HSR × 2026 AI-city origin.

Name: Jing-Zhang Origin; naming system: Origin Promenade, Centennial Stations 01–11, Origin Marker series.

Structure: one 9.6km heritage slow spine · two wings · three key areas · multiple nodes.

Core metrics: site 11.41 km²; green 32.8%; public space 7.2%.

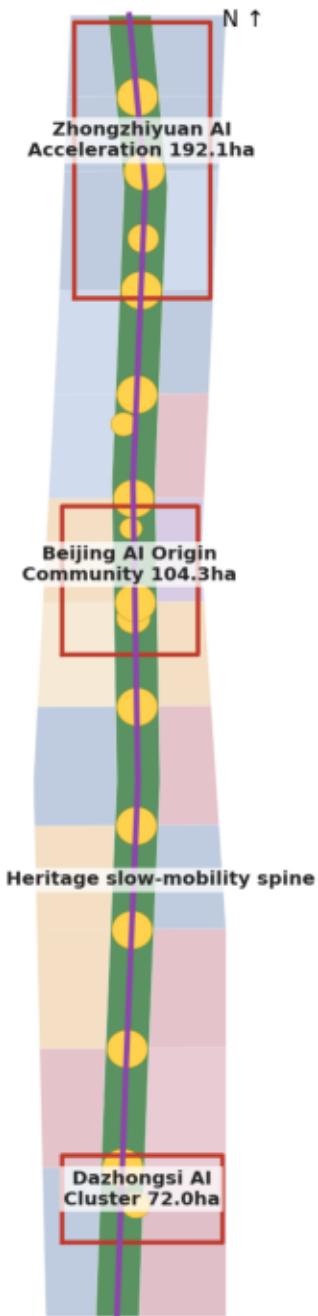

Land use: seamless 25-parcel partition; research 2.81 / green 2.92 / commercial 2.59 / residential 1.87 km².

Scenarios: 10 cards + 3 validation scenarios + 5 personas; landmarks: Origin Marker / Honor Wall / Gallery.

Operation: hackathon/festival/wall/gallery annual system. All claims are conceptual, not approved plans.

Fig.1 Overall structure

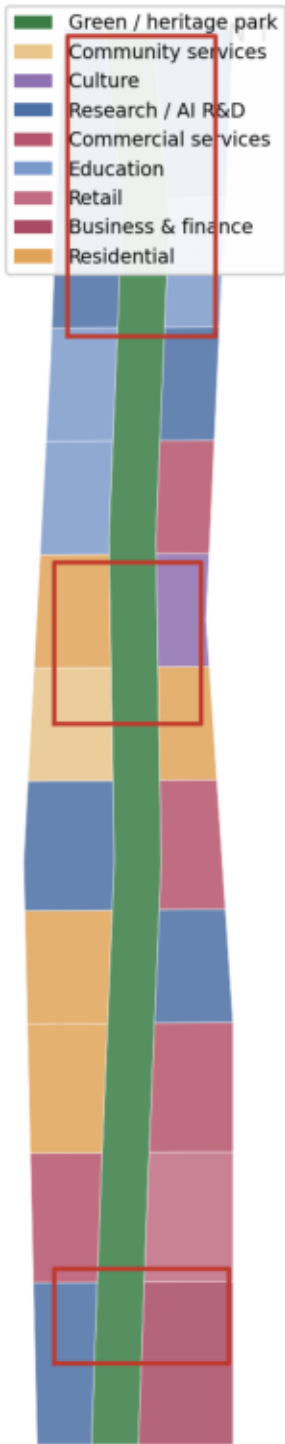

Centennial Loop · AI Origin — Overall Structure | Spine · 3 Key Areas · 2 Wings · Nodes

Sources: repository provisional rough boundaries (official_boundary=false) + design layers of this package; recalculation required once official data is published. Conceptual proposal, not an approved plan.

Fig.2 Land use

Land-use structure (conceptual, seamless partition, recomputed)

Sources: repository provisional rough boundaries (official_boundary=false) + design layers of this package; recalculation required once official data is published. Conceptual proposal, not an approved plan.

Fig.3 Key areas

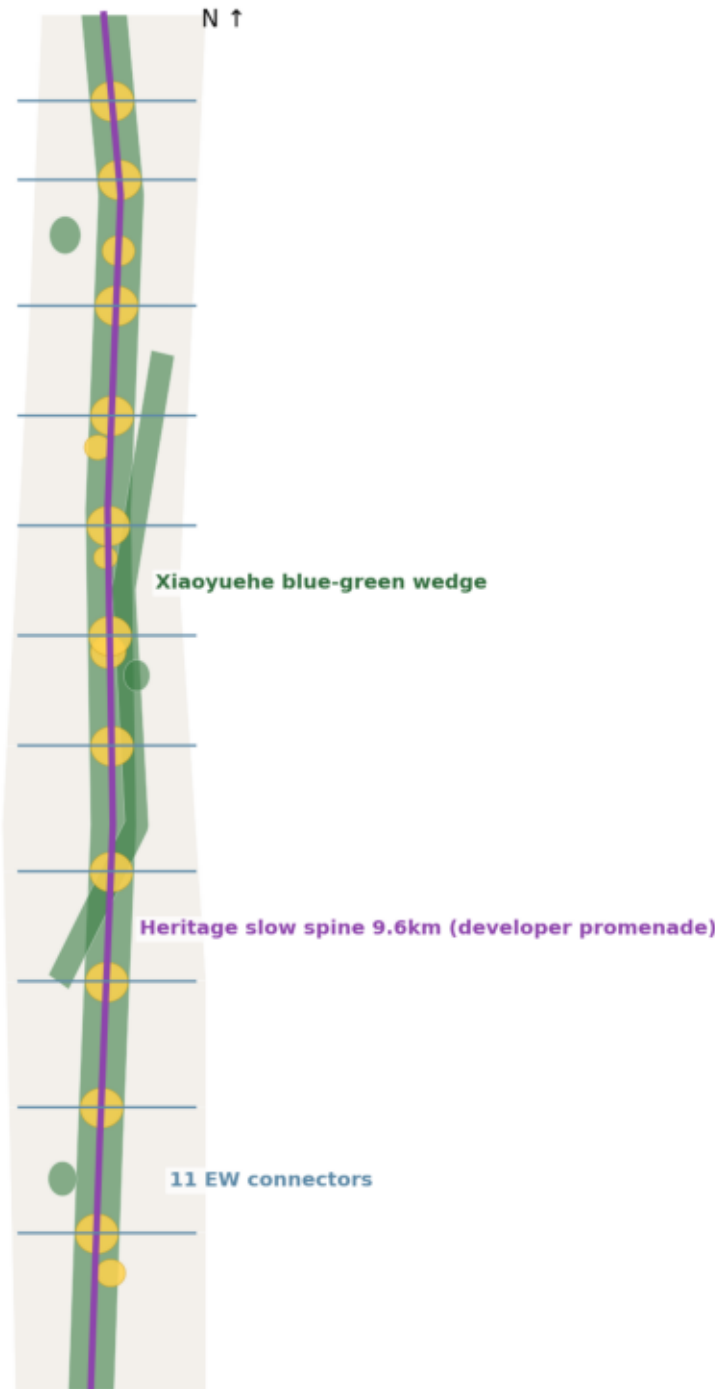

Three key areas detailed-design index (provisional geometry)

Sources: repository provisional rough boundaries (official_boundary=false) + design layers of this package; recalculation required once official data is published. Conceptual proposal, not an approved plan.

Fig.4 Mobility & blue-green

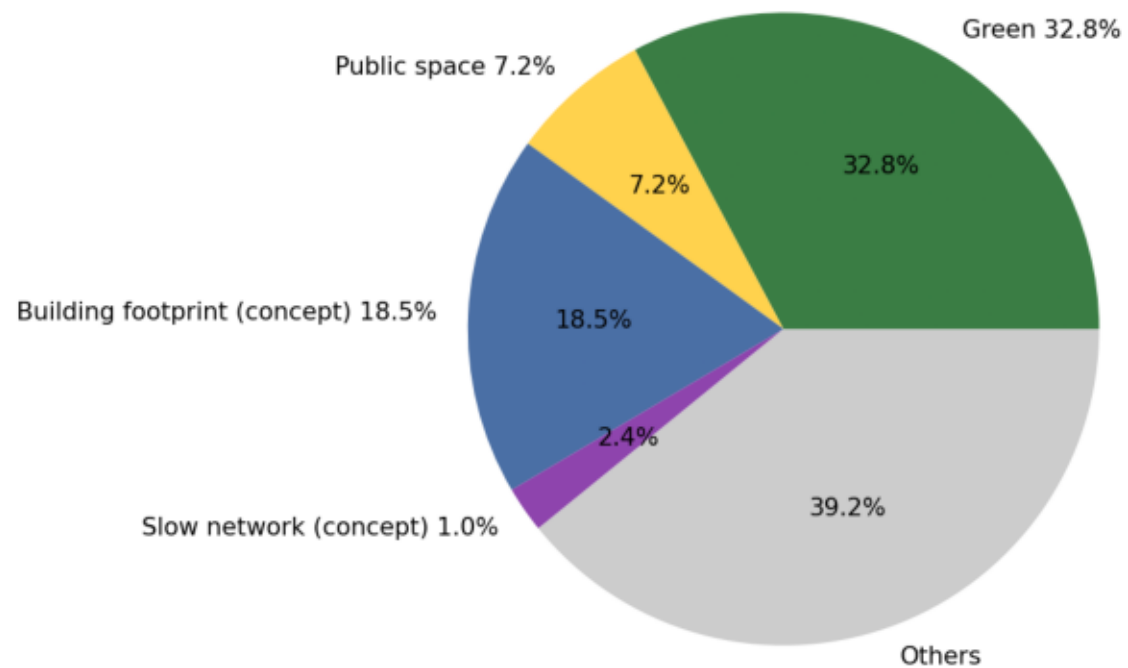

Slow-mobility & blue-green public-space composite system (conceptual)

Sources: repository provisional rough boundaries (official_boundary=false) + design layers of this package; recalculation required once official data is published. Conceptual proposal, not an approved plan.

Fig.5 Metrics evidence

Metric composition (recomputed on provisional boundaries)

Recomputed metrics (EPSG:4548) | formulas in metrics.json

